

KING EDWARD VI SCHOOL, SOUTHAMPTON

UNIFORM POLICY

Introduction

The Governors of King Edward VI School believe that smart School attire is an essential part of the ethos of the School.

In the First to Fifth Year, students are required to wear School uniform. When students enter the Sixth Form they are required to wear smart business dress. For the purposes of this policy, School attire for all years shall be referred to as 'School uniform'. In determining the uniform the School will seek the views of staff, parents and the pupils. Their views will be considered and taken into account.

The School Clothing Regulations for Upper and Lower School pupils follow.

Upper and Lower School uniform

The School reserves the right in all these matters to decide what is and what is not acceptable. If parents or pupils require further clarification on any of the regulations below they should contact the Head of the Upper or Lower School, as appropriate.

Items marked with two asterisks  below MUST be purchased through Stevensons online (www.stevensons.co.uk) or in their store or our second-hand uniform shop (OBNO). Items marked with one asterisk * may be purchased through Stevensons online or in store, or OBNO. See the school website for details of these.

General appearance

Appearance must in all respects be smart, business-like and suitable for attendance at a place of work or study.

Pupils are required to wear School uniform to and from School and on all School occasions, unless directed otherwise.

Extravagant styles and colours will not be permitted. Hair styles, footwear and outdoor clothing must be in keeping with these general principles.

Hair should appear neat and tidy at all times. Hair colour must look natural. Facial hair is not permitted.

Clothing should not be oversize, undersize, unclean or in a poor state of repair.

Shirts should be of a suitable length so that they may be worn tucked in at all times.

Skirts and trousers should be worn around the waist.

Garments worn under shirts or blouses must be plain white and not visible above the shirt/blouse collar, below the end of the sleeve or the bottom of the blouse.

Coats are recommended for travel to and from School in the colder months. Students may choose to wear a School hoodie or tracksuit top or midlayer in place of a coat but non-School items should not be worn.

All clothing and other items must be clearly marked with the owner's name.

Responsibilities

It is the Head's responsibility to ensure that the School Uniform Policy is implemented and maintained. The Head will also determine any questions of compliance with the regulations.

The Head Master delegates particular responsibilities concerning School uniform to the key pastoral staff under the guidance of the Assistant Head (Pastoral).

All members of staff have a responsibility to ensure students comply with the Clothing Regulations. Members of staff should report a student to his/her tutor and/or Head of Year for repeated non-compliance with the regulations.

If a pupil is required for reasons relating to their religion to wear an item, or to adopt an appearance, that might be interpreted as being in contravention of these regulations, the Head Master will consider the circumstance on receipt of a written communication from a person of authority in the religious community. However, the face is required to be visible at all times. Variations to uniform will also be considered on receipt of medical advice.

Sanctions

For minor breaches of the regulations a student shall be warned about their non-compliance with the regulations and asked to remedy the situation: for example, to get a haircut or have a shave in the School Nurse's office. For repeated minor breaches students could expect either a detention or to be placed on Uniform Report.

For major breaches of the regulations a pupil may receive a detention and/or placement on Uniform Report. The pupil may also be asked to leave the School premises to remedy the breach. This should be for no longer than is necessary to remedy the breach. This will not be considered to be an exclusion under the terms of the Parent Contract but an authorised absence. However, if the pupil continues to breach uniform rules this will become a disciplinary issue and appropriate action will be taken including, if required, temporary exclusion as defined in the School's Pastoral Care, Behaviour and Discipline Policy. In all such cases, parents will be notified.

Breaches of the Clothing Regulations

Examples of minor breaches of the Clothing Regulations are:

- Top button undone
- Wrong colour socks
- Shirt untucked
- Skirt too short or improperly worn
- Incorrect school blouse

KING EDWARD VI SCHOOL, SOUTHAMPTON

- Jewellery worn other than one pair of ear studs
- Undergarments the wrong colour or overtly visible
